We have obtained certifications such as BRC, IFS, Bio, Kosher, Halal, and Rex, which attest to our attention to quality and food safety.

CASAFOLINO AS A BENEFIT CORPORATION: A CONCRETE COMMITMENT TO THE FUTURE

CasaFolino SRL is a Benefit Corporation, an innovative legal form introduced in Italy in 2016, which allows us to pursue, in addition to profit goals, a concrete commitment to the common good and sustainability. With this choice, we want not only to grow as a company but also to contribute positively to society and the environment, generating a lasting and positive impact.

What does it mean to be a Benefit Corporation?

Being a Benefit Corporation means going beyond the traditional concept of profit. Our business model is designed to create value not only for the company but also for people and the environment. This commitment is formally defined in our statute and guides all our strategic decisions, from production to distribution, to ensure that every step we take is aligned with our social and environmental commitment.

THE BENEFITS OF BEING A BENEFIT CORPORATION

-  Commitment to sustainability – CasaFolino adopts responsible practices aimed at minimizing environmental impact and promoting the circular economy. Every action we take is designed to respect and preserve our planet.
-  Responsibility and transparency – Every year, as a Benefit Corporation, we publish an impact report documenting the progress of our activities benefiting the community and the environment, in full transparency with our customers and stakeholders.
-  Competitive advantage – Today more than ever, customers and investors recognize and reward companies that implement concrete sustainability and social responsibility policies, as we do.
-  Attraction of talent – Companies with a strong social and environmental commitment are increasingly attractive to professionals who seek job opportunities in settings that share ethical values and a positive impact.
-  Tax and financial benefits – As a Benefit Corporation, we have access to specific tax incentives, grants, and funding dedicated to companies investing in sustainability and social innovation.
-  Alignment with international standards – We adopt globally recognized principles, such as those of B Corps, improving our reputation and credibility internationally.

Being a Benefit Corporation is not just a strategic choice but an ethical commitment to building a more sustainable and responsible future. CasaFolino firmly believes that economic success must be accompanied by community well-being and environmental responsibility, and that these objectives can and should grow together.
